We began this year with confusion at the least and bad news at best. Seniors were notified just prior to registration that they no longer had to have P.E. but that meant they could only take 5 periods. They were told that the units required for graduation had been reduced from 220 to 210, but academic students who were planning on taking an extra elective now could not. Nor could the less energetic get by with a 3 or 4 period day any longer; everyone had to be in 5 periods-unless they worked, of course. Seniors were not happy with being cut Back to Bear Minimum.

Juniors were faced with not only the prospect of the new Senior regulations but more stringent regulation of their own. Junior athletes, along with other athletes, had to pay a participation fee for each sport. They were also informed that if they wanted to play on any team in their senior year that they had to bring their 2nd semester grades to a C average.

Sophomores were the first class to have the proficiency test in writing added to their other graduation requirements. They paid their fees like all other classes and saw the possibility of losing P.E. as a requirement for them as Juniors. No P.E.

was accepted as a "yeal" at first until its loss was seen to limit.

The 82-83 freshmen class entered Warren at a time when the school was not at it's best. They have yet to experience the wonderful Warren cafeteria, and while the tortures of career education are no longer a requirement for them, freshman now have to take three years of math instead of the usual two. Apathy reached an all time high this year and freshman were denied the chance to be a part of the enthusiasm that is usually present in bearville.

We are "Back to Bear Minimum"!

Student Life

All the crazy and zany things that students at Warren High do will be cherished through the years by a single memory. Warren has many activities to keep their students occupied through the long and scrupulous year of 82-83. This is the students year to be different and act different and just be themselves. Individualism is expressed and people no longer try to mimic and copy others way of life. Ways of dress and style from the hot school days to the brisk winter days depend on the persons own interests. At dances students do their own type of dance whether it is the in thing or not. At games some people prefer not to cheer, while others give it their all.

The Final Moment

The night of October 29, 1982 was a night to remember. The crowds stood up and cheered as this years Homecoming queen was announced, by Jeff Bradbury. The air was filled with the thrill of suspense. Then the final moment came. Our Homecoming queen for 1982-83 was Jackie Ford. As her name was announced a look of delight came across her face. The rest of her court was just as delighted and they all gathered around and congratulated her. The rest of the court consisted of Jackie's three Sr. Princess: Dawn Centeno, Stacy Perumean, and Sandi Warner, Jr Princess: Amber Rhines, Soph. Princess: Julie Hammon, and Fresh. Princess: Jamie Walters. All the girls wore beautiful evening gowns and looked their best for this occasion. That night is one that will be remembered by all.

DANCING IN HEAVEN

The worn out jeans and tennis shoes were put away as the formals and tuxedos were brought out for the annual Homecoming Dance. It was held on October 30, 1982 at the Hyatt Hotel in Long Beach. The Homecoming theme was "Dancin in Heaven." We also did something a little different. We had a "DJ" instead of a band as usual. The students seemed to like the idea a little better because more current and an assortment of songs were played. The dance was over at approximately 12:00 and by the end of the night everyone had their picture taken by Pace and their fill of dancing.

Ghosts And Goblins

FRIGHT DAY

Ghosts, goblins, witches, and every imaginable costume and creature roamed the campus on our Halloween dress-up day. Everytime you turned the corner you didn't know what you would run into. It might be a person dressed up as a salt shaker or someone dressed as a pink crayola. As one of the day's activities there was a dress-up competition for all who wanted to enter. There were two separate competitions- one for the teachers and one for the students.

The Complete Make Over

Each year with the coming of the Downey-Warren game Harry the Bear receives attention in a most unglamorous way. Destructive students from Downey High dare to tamper with our precious mascot. Just recently Harry was repaired. Brutal people destroyed parts of Harry's arm, face, and legs. The talented repairman turned pitiful Harry into a buffed bear. Totalled up, it took fifty hours to rebuild him at a costly price of ten dollars an hour, and also the school shelled out fifty four dollars for material. The bear originated about twenty five years ago when the club Les Fideles raised enough money to build a bear. We searched for a concrete company to build our bear, and finally we found the Alpine Concrete Company in Alpine, CA. We told the artist what we wanted, and then he charged us $300.00. As soon as we received the bear, the District of Maintenance came over and installed the bear. A plaque was dedicated to the bear, and a sort of christening took place. All of that took place long ago, but he still is just as important to us as the day he was installed.

Warren's Bear Pride

One of the most traditional and exciting times each year is Downey/Warren Week, which was from Nov. 1-5. Students and faculty have a chance to show their true school spirit by dressing up and participating in all the activities during the week. The activities were

Downey-nerd day, hat-n-shades day, and blue-n-gold day. At the end of the week, a big assembly was held where the annual plucking of the Downy duck took place. Also throughout the week were many class competitions. The school had a tremendous amount of spirit during Downey/Warren week. It could not be decided which class the spirit stick would be given to. As a result, the entire school was awarded with the spirit stick. The highlight of the week was the annual Downey/Warren game. Many students showed their school spirit by coming to the game and cheering on their team.

Faculty Fun

Some people may not realize it but teachers show just as much school spirit as the students. They sometimes participate in school dress-up days. Once in awhile they even participate in lunch time pep assemblies. Two of the main assemblies this year were the Downey-Warren assembly and the Christmas assembly. Both teachers and office personal participated in these two assemblies. In the first assembly (Downey Warren), the staff dressed up as cheerleaders and showed us their cheering ability as they performed to "The Stripper." In the next assembly (Christmas), the teachers dressed as Santa's nine reindeers and sang Christmas's carols for everyone. Both assemblies were proved to be a lot of fun for everyone.

Holiday Cheer

Christmas is a time for Santa and Christmas is a time for cheer. This year Christmas was a time for Warren's annual Snowblitz dance for couples. The dance was held on December 10, 1982 from 8:00 to 11:00. The gym was decorated with Christmas decorations and filled with lots of Christmas cheer.

SANTA SPIRIT

The Christmas spirit seemed to be enjoyed and shared by all. Unlike last year, a band played for the students to dance to. Students could dance and also get their pictures taken with a

Cast Your Votes

Twice a year Warren High holds its annual A.S.B. elections. Students come out and vote for their choice of student council nominees. There are several different categories. The offices students vote for are: A.S.B. pres., vice pres., recording secretary, corresponding secretary, A.S.B. treasurer, commissioner of publicity, commissioner of clubs, commissioner of assemblies, senior class pres., junior class pres., sophomore class pres., and freshman class pres. All the people who run for these offices paste up posters and campaign all through elections. They try and build up as many votes as possible. The elections go through two stages. There are the primary and the final elections. The winners are announced over the announcements the following day.

Food, Glorious Food

Lunch time at Warren High is the favorite part of the school day for many students. It not only is a time to eat your lunch, but it is also a time to meet with your friends and exchange the daily gossip. It's the time of the day to forget about all your class time worries and the surprise quizzes your teachers spring on you. Many students bring their lunches in lunch pails or the ever popular brown bag. There are, however, a surprisingly many who are daring and buy lunch from the school snack shack. These students form the long, never ending lines you see everyday during lunch. Many other things, also, go on during the lunch period. Sometimes, there are noon time assemblies, and bands are hired to play during lunch. All this, and much more happens during lunch time.

Bears Knockout Ducks

At one of our usual crazy pep assemblies, our hero Tony Carnavale had a boxing match with a Downey nerd (played by Mike Hobbensiefken). Of course, our hero knocked him out within minutes. After the victorious match, we had a jump roping contest. Not only students joined in, but so did some of the faculty staff. We managed to get approximately 12 people jumping at a time. All in all, it was a successful assembly and everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.

Teachers Vs. Students

On February 8, Warren held an assembly in our gym. The assembly was to get the students spirits high for the Downey-Warren game. Our basketball teams took on the coaches at Warren High. Warren's team consisted of a mixture of our Frosh, Soph, J.V., and

Varsity teams. On the coaches team were coaches Schmidt, Dunaway, Drake, Belladella, Big Al, Bob Timmey, and Patterson. At the end of the game the score was 14 to 14 so the game was declared a tie. Our basketball teams gave the coaches a good workout, and the game was exciting for all.

After Game Hangouts

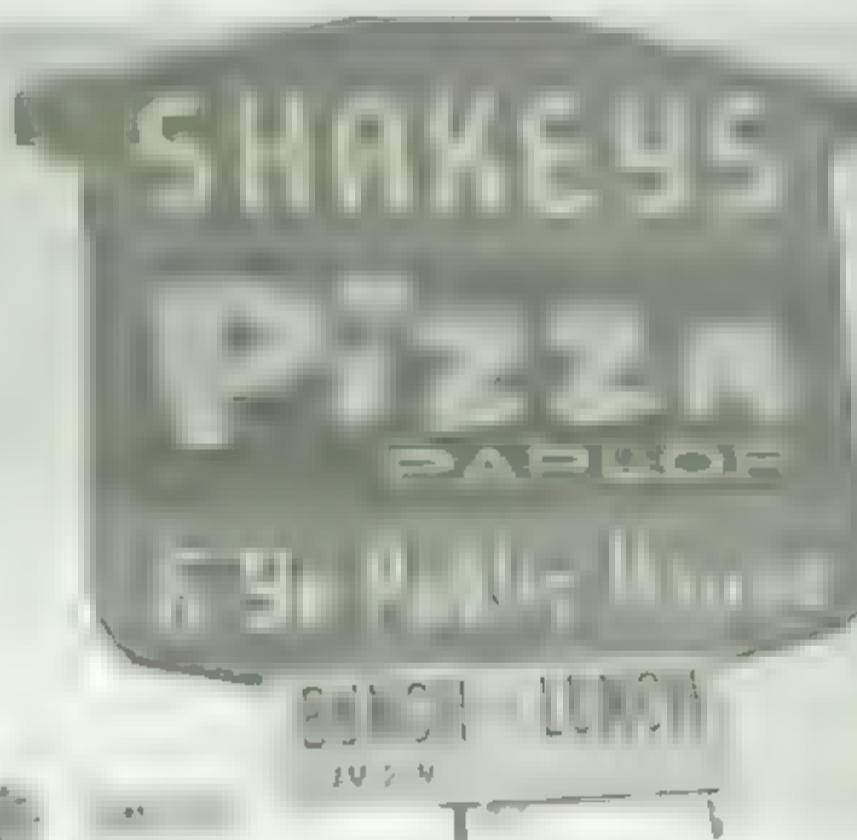

After football and basketball games, many students load their cars with friends to the fullest capacity and drive to one of their favorite hangouts. Two of Warren students most popular hang outs are Mc Donald's and Shakey's Pizza Parlor. On the nights of the games these two restaurants are jam packed with Warren students. They tend to be a little hyper, especially if we won the game. Sometimes there is not enough room to sit inside so people take their food outside.

Once and awhile, students get a little too hyper and will be asked to leave. But, it is all in fun!

A Visit With Mickey

Once a year, Disneyland holds a special night for all CSF (California Scholarship Federation) members. This year that night was held on Friday March 11, 1983. Students from schools all over California gather together on this night. The park is reserved just for them. They have an unlimited use ticket for the night. The park is open from 7-1am. Students have the whole night to go on their favorite rides, visit the shops, and stop at a restaurant for dinner.

The Bad Seed

Star Performance

The Bad Seed is the story of a darling little eight year old, Rodah (portrayed by Desi Smith) who instead of throwing temper tantrums just kills people to get what she wants. When caught in a corner by an adult, her evil devious wit out does them. Director (Sean Chandler) and assistant director (Erin Peck) put much of their time and effort into this play. The cast and crew along with all involved in the play made it a huge success. The turn out of the play was much enjoyed by the audience.

Tennis-Shoe Bop

The Tennis-shoe Bop was the first annual dance. Everyone enjoyed themselves. And hopefully there will be another one next year, and it'll turn out just as nice. The 50's music, clothes, and dancing came back for that evening. Everyone wore the Tennis shoes and 50's attire. Plus they had another one of Warren's wonderful bands. The theme of this dance was thought of by the Girls' League. The dance was a fund raiser for Girls' League. Over all the dance was a big success.

A Visit From Germany

Foreign Students

This year Warren had a special visit from nine foreign students. These come from various parts of Germany. Mr. Hunt is the sponsor and guide of their visit. The visiting students are staying with the families of Warren students in the German Club. They will be staying with our students for three weeks. During these three weeks the visiting German students will tour the campus and various classrooms. We hope the students enjoyed themselves and return again. To the German students we say "Auf Wiedersehen."

Signs hung around the campus reading, "Bait yer date" and "Girls ask those guys." What were these signs for you ask? They were advertising the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance. This year sadies was held on March 18, 1983 from 8pm to 11pm. The dance was attended by many Lil' Abners and Daisy Mae's. The dance was put on by the Letterwomen's club, and a lot of work was put into it. The gym was decorated with streamers and poster pictures of characters such as "Clarabelle," "Hansom Sam", and "Felix the Cat." For musical entertainment, the band Nu-Image played. Besides dancing there were many other things to do. For example, you could get your pictures taken by PACE studios and get married. The entire night was full of excitement for all.

Lunchtime Dancing

Not everyday at lunch do Warren students sit around and eat lunch and gossip. Every once in awhile student council provides the school with music. The music is amplified to where the entire school can hear it. Some students take advantage of the opportunity to display their talent in dancing. The ones who don't dance, stand around and enjoy the music. Many students really enjoy listening to this music, because it's a change from the ordinary lunch period.

Freshmen

we're finally in high school
we've waited for this day up here with the big kids, too old to run and play.

we're above everything else,
better than the rest,
we could stop the world now,
cause freshmen are the best.

sure, we can't drive yet,
but that'll change real soon.
and we can't stay out too late, we've never seen the moon.

there are still 3 years left,
hopefully they'll go fast,
in the class competitions, somehow we're always last.

everything is confusing,
and there are so many fears,
high school's not all they said it would be,
maybe it will get better next year.

In the beginning

The first days spelled slight frustration for me, as it would any freshman. Searching for the next room when the bell ring suddenly becomes a chore (don't panic sets in when the second bell is about to ring and you still can't find the room you belong in). There are new teachers to know, new courses to take, and new procedures to learn (which can lead to more confusion.)

I quickly learned new things which enabled me to conform to the Warren Community. One of the more interesting things I learned is that the teachers here have more personality. This probably comes from conversing (and getting up with) students with personality.

After the initial jitters, I decided it was time to get out. Some of them led to ultimate boredom, but as opposed to that, there are always new things to discover. Many clubs exist to suit your special interests, and after seeing several of the pep rallies and football games, I'm finally feeling my share of the "Warren Spirit."

The first day

The first day of High School is awfully scary for a Freshman. You don't know where to go. So it's a good thing for us that the older people here didn't mind helping us around. By the end of the first week you know who your teachers are and who most of the people in your classes are. The second and third weeks were a lot better. The week did not seem as hard as the first week and I met a lot more people that I never knew before. By the fourth week I really knew what was going on. I had been to two varsity football games. One was a Freshman football game. And also two dances. Another thing about school does not seem that big any more. In conclusion, I am happy to say that I really enjoy Warren, my teachers, and seeing all my friends.

Freshmen Life

The first week of school was pretty neat. I met a lot of new friends and new enemies. The classes turned out to be pretty good, but some were hard.

As it got farther into the month I found out a lot of new things. The first game and dance came along and that was the funniest. The cheerleaders put on an interesting show Friday, it really got everyone into the school spirit.

Now everything was starting to easier. I didn't come late to classes because I couldn't find my classroom, and I didn't die of embarrassment because I went into the wrong classroom. It's hard being a Freshmen! There's nothing like being trashed by a senior because you bumped into him or accidentally walked through the Senior Circle. It all makes you feel so wanted!

Typing Tragedy

These first four weeks at Warren have been very hectic. There are new faces, teachers and classes that I need to get adjusted to. The huge campus overwhelmed me at lunch with students in every direction I turned.

A few days after school had begun I was sitting in fourth period typing. Mrs. Ratzke was telling us that there would be no talking once we entered the room. When the class started to type I noticed that my shift key was locked down. When I asked Mrs. Ratzke if I should type another line to make up for the line of capitals, she told me to turn off my machine and go stand outside.

I was never so scared, sad and shocked in my life. It was hard for me to keep the tears back, a straight A student, at West Middle School out in the cold. Later on when I talked to Mrs. Ratzke she told me that she never meant to embarrass me, but just to use me as an example. I am still really, I realize that you have to be tough at Warren.

Rough Life

I guess my first four weeks of school were all right. The school seems to be so big. My classes are harder than what I'm used to, and, as expected, with high school comes more homework.

The morning of the first day of school I tried to get to school early but to no avail, the crowds were already there. After I picked up my schedule, I got a bottom locker I got all the classes I asked for, so that kind of made up for the bottom locker. Even though I did get lost a couple of times the day was pretty good. It turns out that Warren isn't as big as I expected it to be. It's mostly the same as in high; people are pushy and lockers always seem to be full. I'm still adjusting though we're no longer the oldest people of the school, we're still the same but still people.

Try not to laugh Angie Camacho, but we see you skipping class from the cameras.

Keeping your cool

I am in the marching band and we play all the home pre-games, and half-time shows. I made a big mistake during a halftime show, which at the time wasn't funny, but now it is hilarious. We were all marching in straight lines and then we were all supposed to turn in different directions, but I kept going straight. All of a sudden I realized what had happened and I tripped. I was embarrassed.

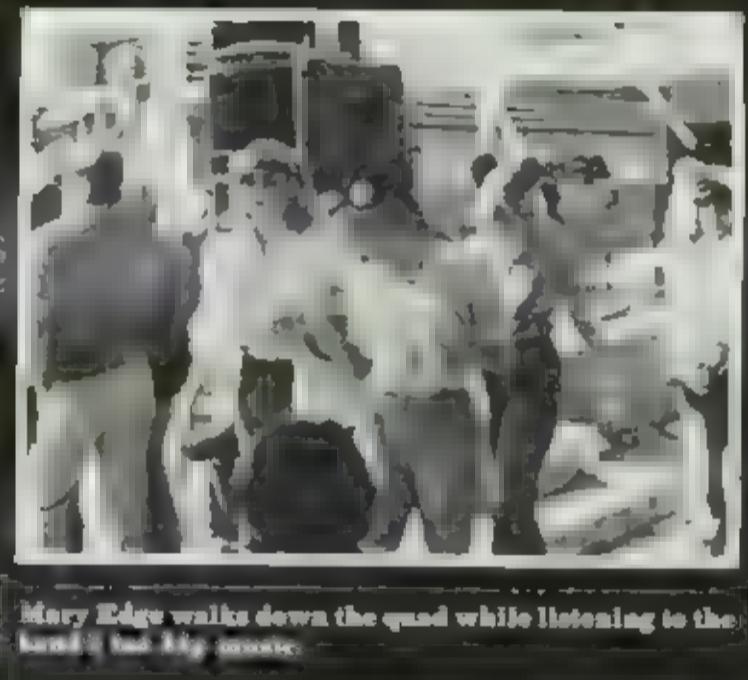

It is a lot of fun here at Warren. We always have a pep rally before every game, and after every home game we have a dance. I like Warren a lot better than West because there is a lot more to do, and you have a lot more freedoms.

I have really enjoyed my Freshmen year here at Warren. It's a lot of hard work, but it's good to go back to Jim High again after being here.

Summers over!

The lazy, relaxing, wonderful days of summer were over. The vacationing, sunbathing and watching television all day would have to decrease. It was time for school to start again. Back to classes, teachers, tests, homework, lockers, books, getting up early, and big lunches; also back to dances, games, pep rallies, assemblies, and being with friends more often. It was different this time though; I was starting high school!

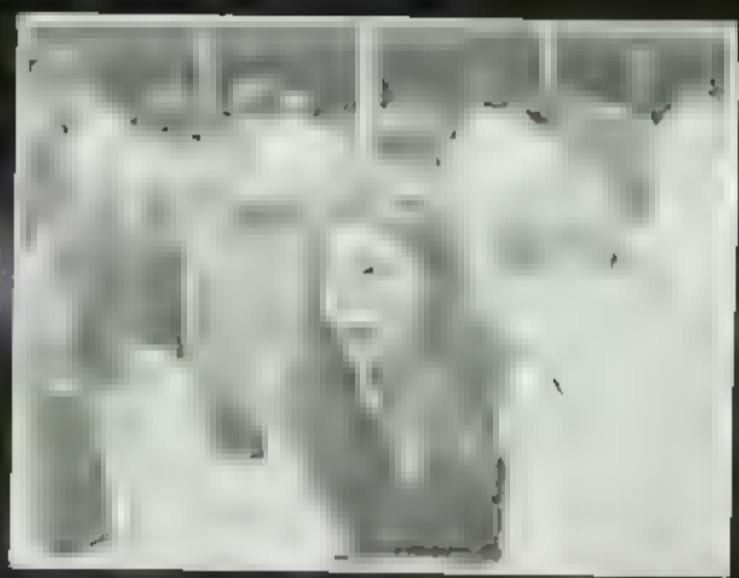

I awoke on September 13 at 6:00 I couldn't believe the long awaited day had actually arrived. Boy was I nervous! I already knew what I was going to wear; that saved an hour. At school when I got my schedule I found out to my great joy, I got everything I wanted! Plus, I had at least one of my friends in each class. With a minimum of confusion, I managed through the first day, but what about after that?

I found out that Warren isn't all that bad, and I've adapted fine. I really like Warren and all the people here.

CLUBS

The clubs of Warren High serve our school and community in many ways. They help in campus clean up, go to hospitals to help cheer up patients, and try to beautify the school anyway that they possibly can. These clubs are not all work however, they have many lunchtime pizza meetings, go on trips to many different places, and sometimes, just hang around each other and have a good time. There is every kind of club for every kind of a person, so there is no excuse for not joining one. It's a great way to make friends, have fun, and serve your community.

Computer Club

This large but popular club had its start just this year under the direction of Mr. Henning and Mrs. Jones. A computer class may become part of next years curriculum and this club was its beginning.

Pep Squads

What it is like to be part of pep squad is experienced only by a few girls in our school. Mrs. Hastings, advisor, said pep squad's major goals this year are to do well in competition and just get everyone more spirited. Cheerleaders on the squad had much to say also. They said it is fun, but a lot of hard work but pepsters also have to keep in step by setting examples for the student body. Regardless of this, they said they would gladly go through it all again just to get back on the squad! Cheerleaders risk injury and take lots of pressure in their effort to make school spirit. "School spirit can be real high or just a real dud. It all depends on the student body."

The band also participated in High School Band Day at the Rose Bowl and competed in the All Western Band Review in Long Beach.

El Oroso Staff

Under the direction of Stacey Persion and Mark Larson this year's El Oroso staff set a goal of making this year's yearbook the best ever. That wasn't easy. We knew with the talent available to us and the enthusiasm generated by a week in San Diego that we could do it. The year started off with a very busy time of training and creating. In spite of having very few returnees, the first challenge facing the staff was a color deadline — only one month after the opening of school. By the time second semester rolled around the staff was well in to the groove of turning out 50 or more pages every 6 weeks — not all on time. The dedication hadn't deserted us but with floods and flu somehow things got a bit confused at times. All in all, we expected the book to turn out well with the help and support of Ms. Kennedy and the entire the El Oroso staff.

Justice Staff

This club is responsible for the writing and publicity of Warren High's newspaper. The Justice brings you the news every 3 weeks that is current. It also brings you the student and the teachers opinion to prominent issues. This years newspaper has been under the direction of David Colnic and Monica Lugo as his assistant. The Editors of the paper are as follows: Ellen Kirby, News; Kelly Colwell, Opinion; Allison Holland, Feature; Steffen Lieber, Sports.

Since then the club has done nothing and it has been disbanded as of February 4th due to lack of interest, there will be no Spanish Club this year. Here is a picture of the Spanish Club as they started off.

German Club

This year the very active German Club went ice skating, to Catalina Island and skiing. They had a fund raiser for the U.S. Olympic team and also hosted eight students from Germany in their homes for three weeks.

Academic Decathlon

Like any other activity, the Academic Decathlon involves team spirit and cooperation. The students held study sessions and also read on their own. A mock contest was held to determine who would represent Warren in the real contest. Warren took third place in the contest, they brought home Bronze medals.

SOPHOMORES

*So you think you've got it pretty tough,
Out in that world described as "rough"?
Perhaps you're right, yes, you could be,
However I'd like you to switch places with me.
Only for a day or two, it
Might just change your point of view.
Of our everyday struggle to stay on top,
Right from our homework to the broom and the mop.
Everyday is a quest to put forth my very best.*

-Astar Cutright

Sophomores Have Spirit

Being a Sophomore has its disadvantages and its advantages. For instance, the school gave our Freshmen class the first writing exam for the proficiency. Weren't we lucky! Sophomores are usually the wild ones and tend to have a lot of spirit. The Sophomores make it known that they are around. Another disadvantage of being a Sophomore is that we still get picked on by anonymous Seniors and Juniors. But, we do get to take drivers education if you're old enough and I'm old enough. Sophomores are awesome! At pep rallies they even out yell the other classes. Sophomores still have their spunk and maturity, but they are also as crazy as ever. Sophomores also get to tell Freshmen what's to be done. You can boss them around like dummies. Tell them to move aside in food lines. Sophomores are the class to beat. They have it made. Sophomores and the class of '85 rule.

We Have Class

What is it like to be a sophomore? You have more authority than when you were a freshmen even if it isn't that much. Also when you walk down the hall you don't have to keep dodging people like when you were a freshmen. Now we can run over the freshmen but still have to dodge the juniors and seniors. The classes are harder as a sophomore than as a freshmen, junior, or the seniors because you are getting most of your required classes done. It's the year when you get a lot of homework. After school when you play sports, like football, you get hardly any time for yourself because of homework. That's what being a sophomore is.

As a sophomore myself I feel that your sophomore year is a major period of your life. Most sophomores feel grown up, but I know many who are as immature as this years incoming freshman. This is also an important year to most of the sophomore class because we can get our licenses and cars and don't have to depend on mommy and daddy anymore for transportation. Next year we will all be big Juniors and then only one year of high school left.

Being a sophomore here at Warren has its ups and downs. I'll begin with the "ups." My Freshmen year was a disaster. It wasn't so much school that was a disaster, it was my "social life." My values and my new friends values sort of clashed. Mine were more "goody-goody". Theirs weren't. To make a long story short, my freshmen year is just like that of "Sandra - Dee" in the movie GREASE. Remember, "Good-bye to Sandra-Dee?" Anyways, the biggest (and only) "up" in my sophomore year (so far) is that I'm no longer my friends "clone", I'm me! I'm glad I realized how dumb I was last year. Now for the "downs". My teachers all give me a lot of homework. I spend at least an hour straight doing homework each night. Another down is I can no longer give the excuse "I didn't know" and get away with it.

Our Second Step

The golden year is 1982 and we have reached our sophomore year. Our freshmen days have rushed on by and now we are climbing to our second step. The step we face is new and exciting and on this step we become more comfortable. The comfort comes with new acquaintances and with spirit for our school. This school seemed so big once and now as sophomores we feel its warmth and security. The security brings a freedom and with freedom we gain respect. As sophomores we meet more teachers and through these teachers we gain more knowledge. As sophomores we experienced more work and more pressure but through these hardship we get the education that we are striving for. We felt no patience as freshmen and now we have finally reached the second year. We have all successfully reached our goal to be the sophomores of Warren High and with this accomplishment we get the pride of being named sophomores.

Being a sophomore at Warren High is a new thing to me! Being a student at Warren is also new to me! But I really enjoyed the school year! It's all a new type of school, it's exciting and different! But I really like Warren High! The teachers all seem real friendly and nice. The students are all very friendly. I've meet many new people.

I love how everyone goes to the games, and has lots of spirit, and enthusiasm for their team and I really think that's great!

Well, I moved up in the world of High School this year. I went from a "punk freshman" to a "big sophomore". What a difference! Now I can look down at those little freshmen with laughter of knowledge. As a tenth grader, my education was more difficult than I had expected. I reached a challenge in which I must exceed my usual grade average. On the other hand, my social life is wonderful! I now get to go out on the weekends and I soon will be able to drive. Learning to drive has been one of the most unforgettable experiences of my life. There are many advantages to this stage in my life. I have only reached the first few steps, and look forward to the years to come.

Sports

Schools all across California are feeling the pinch of lack of funding. The school districts are not getting the money they want and school functions are buckling.

Nowhere is the need for the almighty dollar being felt more than right here in the Warren High sports department. In order to have a workable sports department each athlete was to purchase a $12 student activity card and pay $35 sports fee (conceivably for bus fare to and from events). The fee has been labeled unconstitutional and will be opposed. This contest won't be decided on any football field though, it will be settled in court.

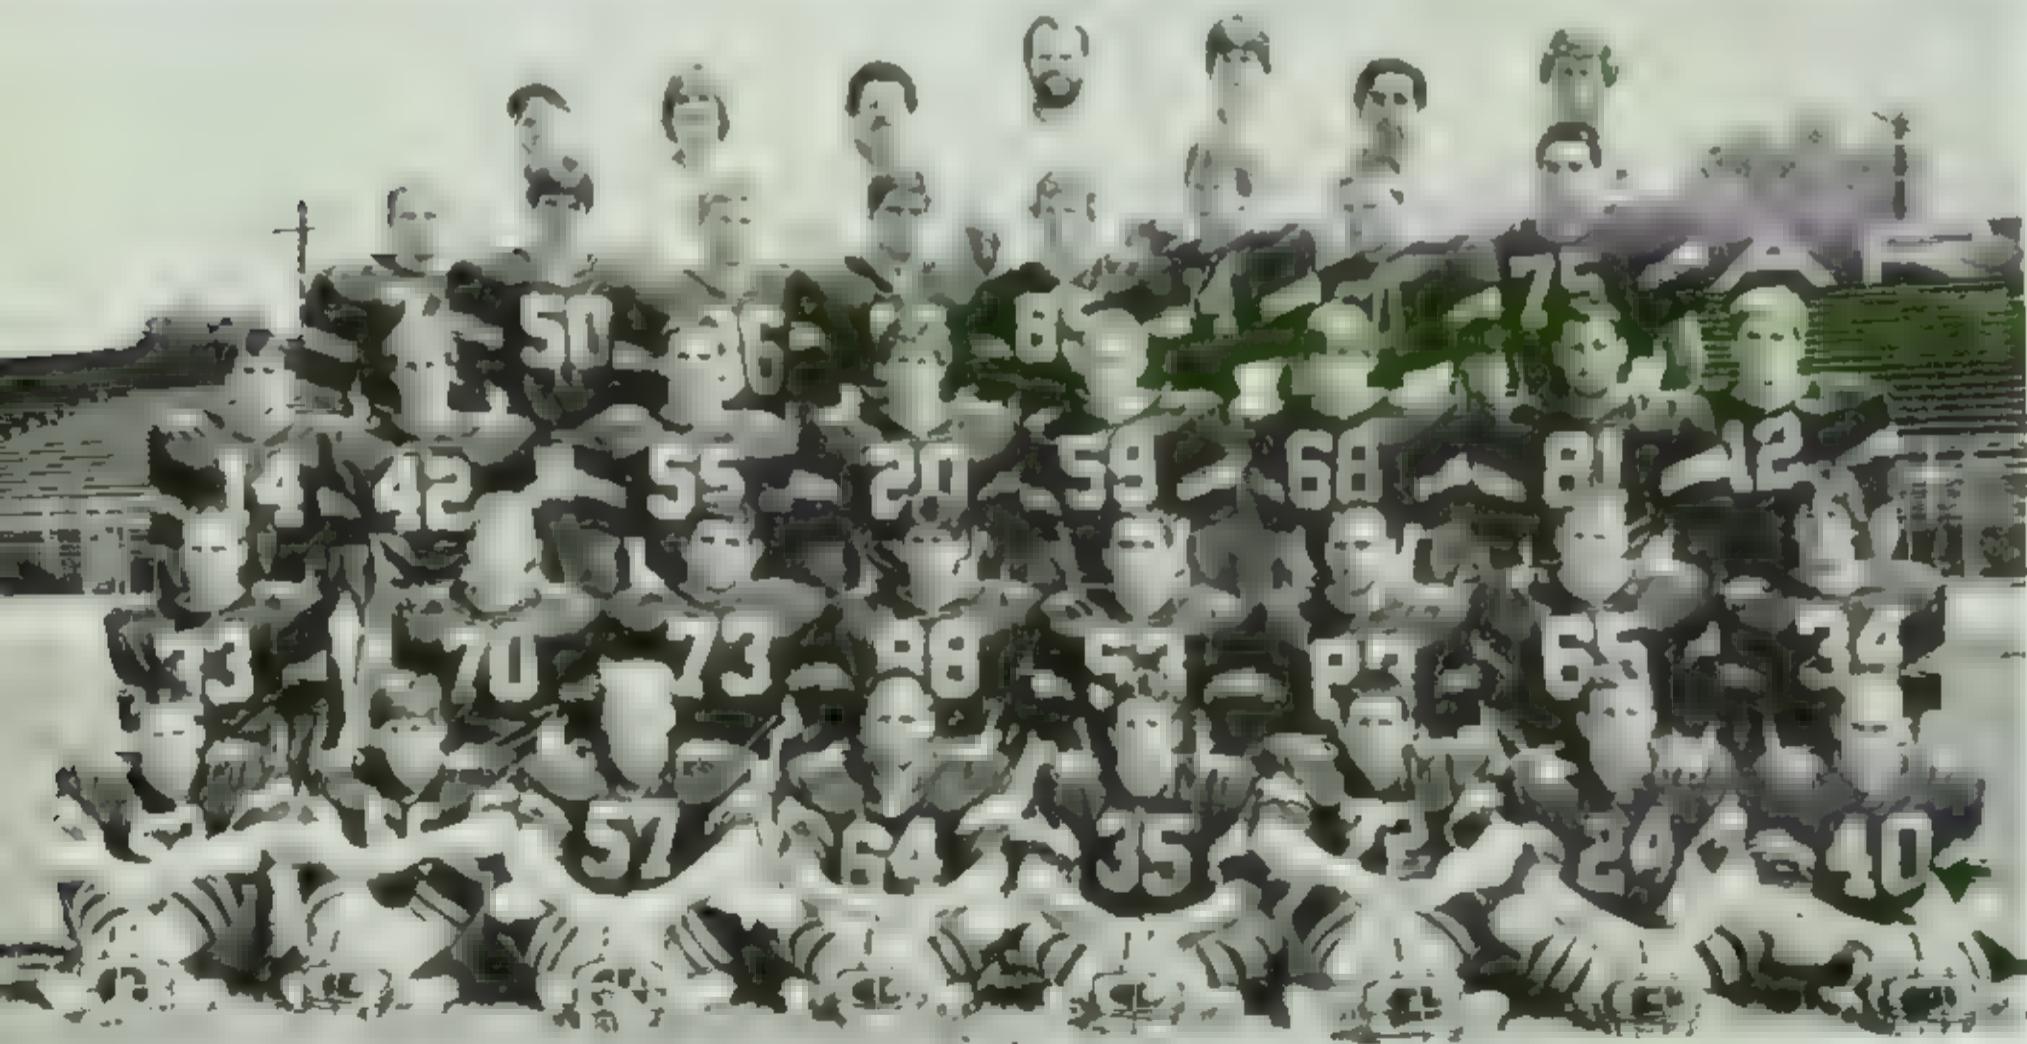

Through this smoke of turmoil the Bears trot on, looking for the light in the misty distance. A League championship here, a third place there, an undefeated season, broken records . . . the usual Bear Minimum.

-Steffen Leiber

The 1982 Varsity football team had a very disappointing 4-6 record which did not show the true picture. Each loss could have been victory, but they slipped through our grasp. The season started with a victory over La Habra. La Habra came out strong and took an early 9-0 lead but the Bears came back with two touchdown passes from Don Sabella to Brent Raine to overcome defeat for a 15-9 win. The next week, against H.H. Wilson, Warren let one slip away by committing five turnovers in a 21-16 loss. Against Millikan, the bears saw victory race by when the Millikan quarterback scampered 66 yards for a touchdown with just four minutes remaining, to hand Warren a 13-10 loss. League opened against Lynwood and the bears felt defeat with a very tough 28-14 loss. The next game against Mira Costa, the Warren offense came alive with three touchdowns by Tony Carnevale and a touchdown pass from Sabella to Raine insuring a 31-22 victory.

Capture A Disappointing Season

Entranced in the game, Jeff Box looks onto the field

Trying to escape the other team, Nelson Kerr jumps in the air

Keeping the player from moving, David Paysee tries to pull him down.

In the game against a tough Paramount team, the Bears lost 20-13 on a long run in the fourth quarter once again. Versus Gahr, Warren kept up the tradition (never losing to Gahr) and handed Gahr a sound 24-6 defeat. In the Homecoming battle, the Bears tallied their only shutout in a 24-0 victory over Dominguez. Against Downey, Warren saw victory slip away by a foot, losing in double over-time on a field goal. The Bears took an early 10-0 lead but Downey came back and tied the game with :01 seconds remaining. In double over-time, a field goal put the Bears on the shorter end of a 10-16 score.

The final game, against Cerritos, the Bears still feeling disappointment from last weeks loss, lost in a half-hearted effort 17-5. Despite the losing record, Warren had many outstanding players: All Leaguers: First team: Linebaker Tony Carnevale, Defense back and second team Tight End Brent Raine, Wide Receiver Nelson Kerr, Offense Guard Dave Magee, Kicker Steve Amaral. All League: Second team: Defense End Jeff Box, Defense Tackle Mike Lingrey, and Quarterback Don Sabella. Also playing well for the Bears were Linebaker Joel Marks, Defense Tackle Travis Halstead, Defensive Back and Running Back John Brown and Wide Receiver Mike Hobbensiefken

J.V. Pulls Through

Warren's young Bear's football season was one of ups and downs. Battling for a league record 3-2-1.

A grude match against the purple knights of Lynwood this game was characterized by mistakes happening at the wrong times preventing Warren from gaining momentuem and a score.

The J.V.'s next opponent was Mira Costa which ended on a much higher note with an easy victory of 21-6. This game was won by the defensive unit holding off Mira Costa for the first half so the Bears offense could get on track and score in the second half.

Once again the teams spirit fell in the Paramount game with the strong Pirates romping over the Bears by a score of 34-7.

Following the loss to Paramount the Bears season came together with victories over Gahr and Dominguez. In both games the strong defense was the key. Some of the outstanding Defenders this year were Vince LiMandri, Doug Campbell, and Eric Nelson.

Getting tackled while running, David Paysee tries to keep going

Next the Young Bears strived to keep their winning streak alive by coming out on top over crosstown rivals Downey Vikings. In the end things looked good for the Bears, triumphing to a 14-8 victory. Once again the defense holding down the opponent. However, there were also some good offense performances by running backs. Tim Ferguson and Gary Tripp along with the consistently high standard of play by Quarterbacks Dan Pena, Bobby McKinney, Scott Zowada and Mike Robson.

The Bears final game against the Dons of Cerritos, however the winning was stopped at three games in a loss.

Ploughing down the opponent, the bears trot on.

Starting the play, the bears try to pass.

The Bears 1982 season will be remembered as one with powerful defense usually holding the opposition to just a few points per game, while the offensive unit played well a few mistakes kept them from going to the top.

-Dave Colnic

Falling to the ground, the players bounce.

Marching to the field, the team wants victory.

FRESHMEN HAVE GREAT SEASON

Putting forth great effort the team starts the play

"We had a great overall season" commented Chris Forseen reflecting back on various schools played during Freshman Football Season. All players were outstanding in sportsmanship, attitude and discipline during the season. Chris Forseen did a super job on both offense and defense playing linebacker, quarterback with Andy Ippolito following through at linebacker, quarterback, and runningback. Mark Hester did an excellent job at runningback, as Eric Malone, Steve Fendry, and John Lynus gave the team great performances. Steve Coddy and Mike McCulla matched points bringing in team victories. Andy Ippolito said "We had an awesome defense."

-Eric Malone

Tennis Anyone?

The 1982 girl's varsity tennis team had an excellent season with only losing a few matches.

All the players tried hard but a few people came out on top. Among this years top players were Julie Hammon, who only lost two games this season. Another outstanding player was Lisa Janisse who was the number 1 doubles player.

Julie Hammon went all the way to the CIF quarterfinals.

J.V. Has Tough Season

The 1982 girls J.V. tennis team had a very disappointing season with a 3-9 league record. With their only wins over Gahr.

This years toughest games were against Paramount and Cerritos. The Paramount team had a strong singles player and tough doubles teams. The Cerritos team had both strong doubles and singles teams.

The top doubles teams were Susie Fisher and Lori Cluff, and, Theresa McQuade and Kami Clarke. The years best singles players were Chrissy Janisse and Mary Edge.

At the awards banquet Most Valuable Players were given to Susie Fisher and Lori Cluff. Rookie of the Year given to Mary Edge. Barbra Doyle and Kristy Kessler were voted Most Improved.

Varsity H₂O Polo Dunk Season

Varsity waterpolo consists of some of the most outstanding swimmers in the school. They all work hard at a common goal which is to be the best!!

Their 1982 season wasn't their best but they still played an excellent game. Varsity player Jeff Kirkland played an excellent last season scoring more goals in league play than any other player in the league.

Pacing to win the race, Troy Wathan and Gleen Pauley run to the finish.

Against a tough Downey team, Mike Smith is trying to come ahead.

This year put forth a challenge to the bears cross country team. Coming off three straight league titles and a record that extended to 26 wins without a loss the bears had a strong history. With five returning starters including the four seniors: Dan Davis varsity letterman, four years, Jeff Bradbury and Mike Smith, three year varsity letter earners. Robert Haworth back from a two year layoff, the team proved to be one of the best in Warren's history! In the quest for a league title the bears came up short as they lost to Downey in the last heartbreaking meet of the year. Warren did however have a league champion in Jeff Bradbury and a C.I.F. polem birth. The Bears' winning tradition has come much in part of their coach Gary Polhill whose record stands unprecedented. The team is going to miss the four graduating seniors as well as their coach who will be married off this year.

J.V. Takes Country

Stupendous and colossal are the only words to describe the outstanding performances of Warren's J.V. cross-country team this season. They tied for first place with two other teams achieving set goals for the 82-83 season.

All of this could not have been accomplished without the consistent training and guidance of Coach Gary Polhill and the determined attitude of each team member to follow through with their good training and bring a championship to Warren.

To name just a few of the outstanding runners that brought victory to our team, they were Glenn Pauley, Mike Brinkman, Jim Armstrong and Paul Kakuske.

-Jim Armstrong

Leading the pack, Jim Armstrong goes all the way.

Runners Work Well Together

Coming out third overall in league play is not a bad place for this year's cross-country team.

The best runner on the team was Cindy Dalmau, with Kim Temple and Tiffany Howard not far behind for second place.

The team went to C.I.F. playoffs but did not go very far from there.

Running toward victory Julie Nash keeps on going

The J.V. Girls Cross Country team had a great season this year. They placed undefeated in league. All the girls put out a very strong effort for the team. Some of the top runners were Cindy Clark, Most Valuable Player, Mero Eha lie, also Most Valuable Player, Alane March, Most Improved, and Lisa DaSilva. Good Job Girls!!

Volleyball Tries Hard

Hitting the ball, Kris Kearns looks up.

The 1982 Varsity Volleyball had a tough season with a league record of 2-10, with the only wins against Lynwood.

Lead by Captains Lorie Blass and Kris Kearns, the girls played excellent games against cross-town rivals. Downey, Paramount and Dominguez. Outstanding players throughout the year were Ellen Chi, spiking; Lisa Blass, passing and serving, and Wendy Jendro, blocking and setting.

At the awards banquet Wendy Jendro was voted Most Inspirational, Zenia Benjamin was the most Improved and Kris Kearns was named Most Valuable Player.

Striving To Improve

While the other team has the ball, our team gets into position.

With help from the whole team Coach Andrews was proud of his '82-'83 J.V. Volleyball team. The team made up of returning Sophomores, also had a few Freshmen and Juniors on it.

The returning team members had to teach the newcomers correct ways to serve, return and spike the ball. This was done with a lot of cooperation.

The team had several outstanding players. They were Lisa Davis, Lisa Noble, Tracy Smith, and Kristen Robinson.

Serving the ball, Erika Robinson ends up in an awkward position.

Went To Playoffs But Lost First Game

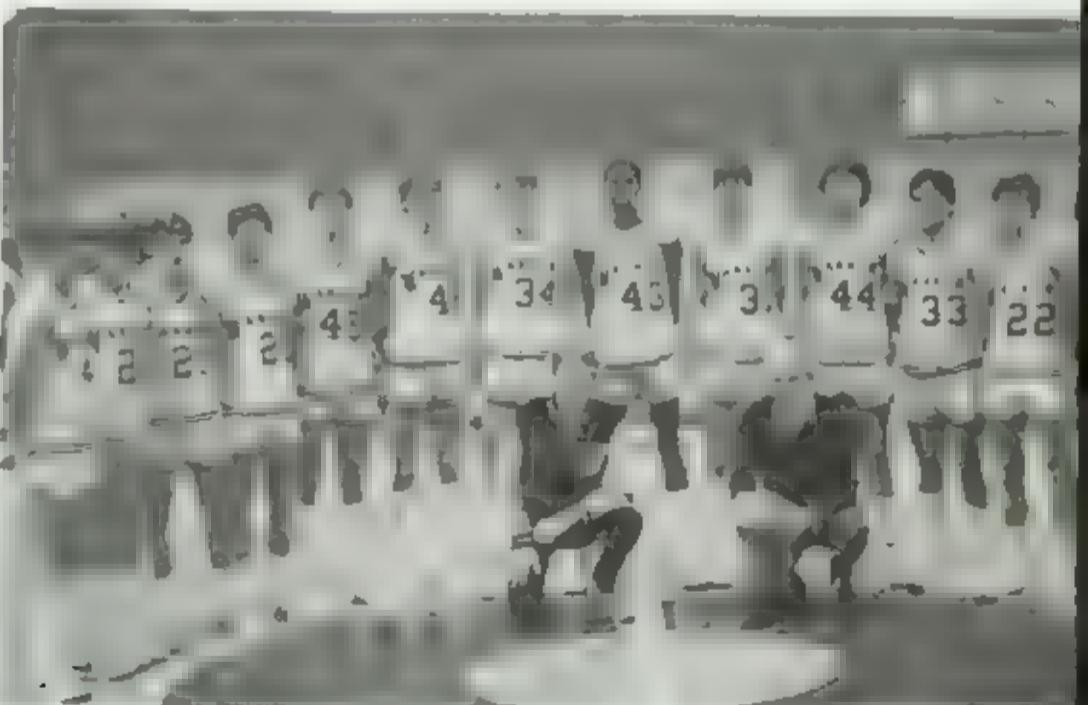

Taking time out Joesh Buell and Mike Brannon sit on the bench.

This year's basketball team had a very good year. They ended the season in third place in the San Gabriel Valley League.

Some of the basketball team's hardest games were against crosstown rival, Downey High, Cerritos High, and Dominguez. In the first game against Downey, probably the best played game of the year, Warren won by 17 points. During the first half of the game we were behind by 18 points.

The team also went on to play in the C.I.F. playoffs, but in the first game Warren lost 82-60 to Capistrano Valley.

At the awards banquet held on March 16, Tim Stewart and Steve Lueke both received the Most Valuable Player Award.

Makes Fresh Start

Under leadership of Lisa Machado, team captain, and Deana Stubblefield, coach, the J.V. basketball team came through the season fairly well.

Among the team's most outstanding players were Paula Fitzgerald and Lisa Machado, and helped the team out a lot by taking statistics at all the home games.

Had Hard Season

Kicking the soccer ball away from the opposing team. Adri Sergio is very proud.

Under the direction of Coach Larry Hunt, Soccer is becoming a very popular sport at Warren. This year was a real year for building his team as Coach Hunt had especially young and inexperienced players. Next year we are looking forward to great things from our Soccer team.

Most valuable players were Doug McLaughlin who played the position of rover and Neil Camden who was right forward.

Team Has Potential

"The team is young and have great potential" said Coach Bishop. With the team being made up of mostly freshmen and sophomore it was extremely hard going against other teams which were made up of juniors and seniors.

Two of the teams best players were Rueben Reynoso and Jorge Lugo.

Had Strong Year

Making a perfect shot!!

Robert Haworth hits one onto the green.

The 1983 Warren Golf team had a very exciting year. Coached by Coach Bob Speights, the Bears have a strong team and have done well this year. The team was led by Seniors Robert Haworth and Mike Strelecker. Beautiful Rio Hondo and Los Amigos golf courses are where most of their practices and matches are held.

Running around the track, Meroe Elahi looks as if she may never stop.

Preparing to stop, Kim Temple slows down.

After a long meet, members of the girls and boys team rest on the high jump mattress.

Runners Keep On Going

Looking worried about the outcome of her race, Rebecca Brinkman tries to speed up

The team, under the direction of Coaches Hill and Polhill, had a good season. Top track and field players on the team were Julie Nash, Tiffany Howard, and Cindy Dalmau. Actually the whole team worked well together and were a great success.

Benny Barker, off and running for the Bears!"

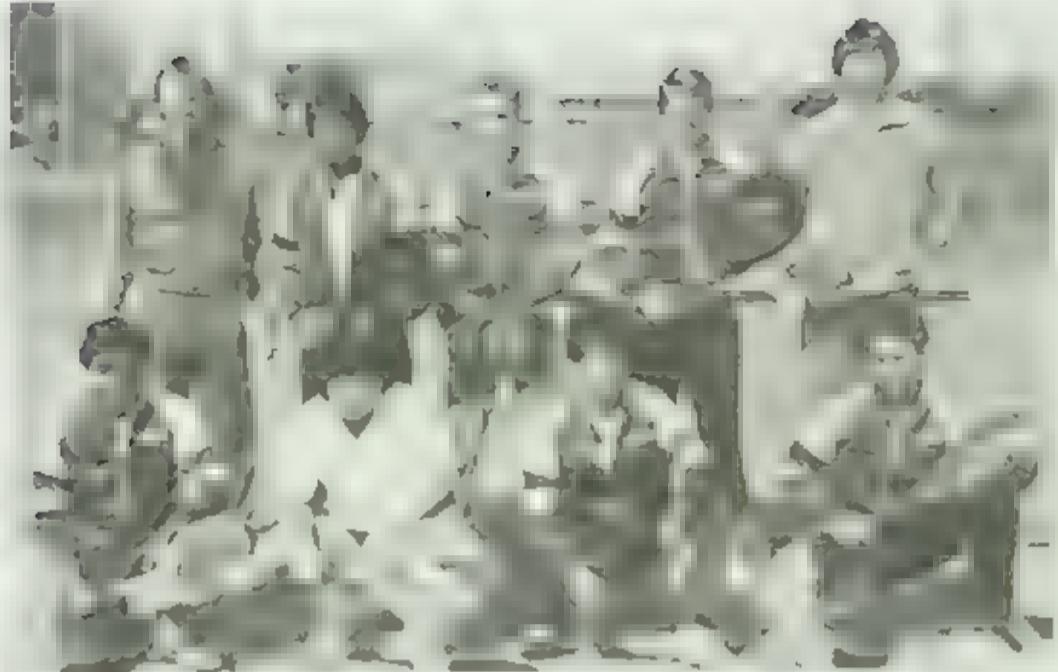

Boys Soph-Frosh had many outstanding events and participants this year. Looking stronger with each event, we have seen great improvement with this years team. Coached by Coach Hill and Coach Pohill, this team has shown great perserverance which is the name of the game.

When Gerardo Tamago hits the tennis ball back, his opponent knows he has power!

The season started off well for the boys varsity tennis team with a lot of help from Coach Kirk Wilson.

Like all the sports at Warren, this team puts in a lot of extra time practicing on weekends and after school. This extra practicing really pays off at the matches every week.

The whole team worked well together with all the singles and doubles teams winning most of the games. This made Warren win most of its matches.

Gilbert Sinco smiles at the camera after winning the game 6-0

Encouraging Future

Flying in the air, Gary Dyjor tries very hard to return the ball.

Hitting an overhead ball, John Trotter looks scared that he won't return it properly.

The J.V. Tennis team is coached by Coach Larry Hunt. Although Coach Hunt had a very young J.V. team this year, he is very encouraged for the future. For most of the players, it was the first year for playing competitive tennis.

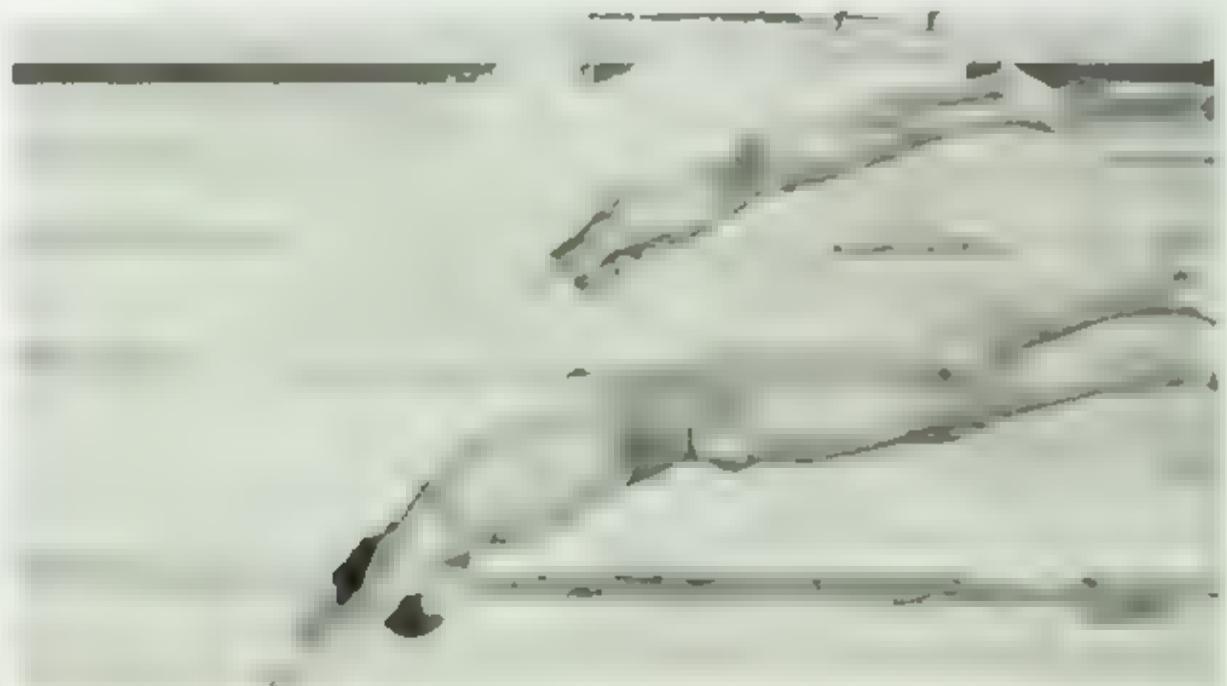

Getting ready for the meet Karen Miller, Shawn Murphy, and John Manderville dive into the pool.

During practice, Brian Menges and Phil Riddle plunge into the pool.

While doing the butterfly stroke, one racer gets ahead of the other.

Swimmers Dive In Action

The Soph-Frosh boys swimming team seems quite strong this year. Led by a tough crew of Sophomores, the team went for a second consecutive year of League Champion in a very tough league. The three Captains this year were Mario Cajati, Phillip Rook and James Tatum. Some of the outstanding swimmers were Martin Klaus in the 100 free, Bruce English in the 50 yard back and butterfly, Shawn Murphy in the breaststroke, James Tatum in the 100 yard individual medley, and Phillip Riddle and Mario Cajati both in the 50 yard free.

As Juniors grow up, they tend to get a little spirited. No longer are Juniors afraid to show their spirit at pep assemblies. When class competition goes on at the pep assemblies, the Juniors will now stand up and yell till their hearts are content. Juniors take pride in their class and are proud to attend Warren High. Many schools are confined and don't have these special pep assemblies. If a school doesn't cheer the team on during a game, subconsciously the team hears them not cheering and as a result they might do poorly. That isn't the case for Warren's Juniors though. The Juniors give the team the incentive that they need to keep them fighting till they reach glory.

First, I feel very proud to be a Junior. You're not like a freshman and getting picked on all the time, or like a Senior who goes in the middle of it all. This is the year when most people grow up and mature a little bit. A Junior's year is when he starts to think about his future. He starts to take school more seriously and tends to look forward to college and think of what he wants to make of himself. This is the time students start feeling more and more independent, relating to the fact that Juniors start to drive, get their first job, and start to go out on dates. I feel that being a Junior is one of the best years of high school.

Trying to comprehend what the teacher says is Cindy Bailey.

Some people may ask just what is a Junior? A Junior is a person who is in that in between age of being neither a child nor an adult. You're just there. You're grasping for the first steps of maturity struggling to hold on to the innocence of childhood. You want to scream at the whole world and tell them "I am a person!" You want to be yourself but are still trying to figure out just who you are. When you are a Junior and are experienced enough, yet you will have a lot of decision making ahead of you.

As Seniors . . .

Though a Junior still has his Senior year to go, plans must be made for an organized future. There is no rush, but simply time to prepare for their up coming years. A college education ranks high among many Juniors and what better way to prepare for college than to take college prep classes. Since more electives are offered, it gives one the chance of exploring different career areas to find out what is interesting to the individual. Because Juniors realize that they only have their Senior year left they start to take life a little more seriously. Grades and the thirst for knowledge become more and more important as the days go by. Even if a Junior isn't planning on going to college then he most likely has a certain type will take their places in line as Juniors focus on future careers.

Here we are in our third year at Warren with only one more year to go. We've had some good times, along with some bad, we've seen Warren win and lose. It's our turn to look ahead into the future. No longer will we have to look up at anyone, but instead others will look up at us hoping that their Junior year will be as good as ours. While they look up at us we strive to make our Senior year the best that Warren High has ever experienced. We Juniors are proud to belong to Warren and we will excel and achieve together. We arrived here at the same Bear time and the same Bear channel. Together we will brave American History 'til we succeed. As each day unfolds it's knowledge, we're proud of what we've become JUNIORS, given the choice to sink or swim as always, come out on top.

FACULTY AND CURRICULUM

The individuals who make up the Warren faculty have come together over the years to form a group dedicated to giving students the best possible education. Whether it's in class, at a football game, or performing at an assembly, the faculty is always there, being involved not only as teachers and administrators, but also friends.

Rising early in the morning and getting to school before the birds are even up, our office personnel get ready and excited for the day to start. They have many responsibilities. They must type, put letters into all the teachers boxes, answer the phones, put the flags up, and get the pay rolls ready.

The principal of our school, William Spruston, has many duties too in addition to his primary duty of being responsible for the whole school. He attends all the P.T.A., league and faculty meetings, he spends time talking with employees about problems and makes sure everything is running smoothly.

Noella Saltzman and Phyllis Benson laugh over the assignment given to them.

Ever since 1956 when Warren first opened, the attendance office has been a fairly busy place. It is a sort of congregating place for a lot of students whether they really belong there or not. The attendance office is in charge of keeping all the records of attendance for all of the students at Warren. When one walks in the office he can usually see a vast majority of seething students some of which aren't always happy. A lot of times students come to the attendance office to have a little chat with either Rebecca Saffell, the Dean of Girls, or Michael Kearns, the Dean of Boys. The two together make a powerful force in keeping the students in line and out of mischief. By the time a student is a Senior he has had to have visited the attendance office for one reason or another. The attendance office is the strings of Warren High for the records lie within.

Helping students to schedule their classes, plan their futures, satisfy their college entrance requirements, apply for scholarships . . . all of these are part of the job of the staff of full time counselors. The guidance office is headed by Mrs. Teresa Shuck, Vice Principal. Each boy and girl who enters Warren High gets assigned to a counselor according to alphabetical arrangement of the last name; therefore each student usually has the same counselor for all four years. In this way the counselor is able to become acquainted with each student's problems and wishes.

FINE ARTS

Warrens fine arts department helps bring a little culture to the campus. The award winning band is a welcome change from the ghetto blasters that blare in the hallways, art classes help decorate the dances and make murals to beautify the school, and the photographers capture a piece of everyones life in pictures. The students who participate in these activities add something to the school, and their effort should be appreciated by all.

Without the discipline to study our world in an organized way we would not have the ability to understand it. Science offers such a discipline. The student of Biology learns the names of the various parts of the body before observing the parts and their functions in a dissection lab. The student of Chemistry must know the elements before formulating them into the more familiar products in our world such as salt. Our science teachers work hard to make us learn about our world.

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Flota Daniels, the English department strove to develop the skills of students in four areas of language arts: reading, writing, listening, speaking. Instruction was centered around the correct use of grammar, promotion of critical thinking, the expansion of vocabularies and an appreciation of literature. Instruction for students interested specialties such as dramatics, public speaking, and publications was also provided. We should be proud of the fine job our English Department does.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Industrial Arts, formerly known as shop, helps to prepare students in trades, such as; wood and metal working, electronics, graphics, and the media.

Those who like to work with the above find that Industrial Arts help them to become more adept in the field that they are interested in.

These classes are just the ticket for people who can't stand to just sit still at school and want to work with their hands, to create things, and possibly go on to work in the field that they studied.

Home Economics is another one of Warren High's electives aimed to teach students domestic skills to aid them in the future. Two fine classes under the title of Home Economics are foods and sewing. These classes are under the supervision of Mrs. Grundman and Miss Rohde. Foods is a class which interests both girls and boys and teaches the students how to cook basic things like eggs and french toast to more advanced dishes like a Chinese meal. Sewing is mainly a class in which girls are interested in. In sewing there are requirements which must be met and the teacher works along with the student making sure all directions are followed.

Physical Education has always been an important part of a student's life. P.E. teaches sportsmanship, competition, and gives students the chance to work together as a group. It helps keep students physically fit and is a good release for the energy that is built up by sitting in a classroom all day.

Although students often complain about the P.E. dress code, the exhausting exercises, and suiting up on rainy days to sit in the gym. P.E. is, on the whole, a fun class that is enjoyed by most who take it.

1. Wesley Bell is one of our "famous" Counselors here at Warren who has been here since October 1972. He started teaching in the district in 1956 at South Junior High School. Then to Woodruff Junior High School when it opened. He desired to be at Warren because of the caliber of students who attended here. He said, "They have always impressed me as being serious, sincere, and dedicated to learning."
2. Mr. Boyd is one of the original teachers here at Warren High. He started in September 1956. He teaches California History, American and Comparative Government. He hopes that he has helped our school. Most students have shown a desire to learn and are a delight to work with, according to Boyd. He plans to retire in 1987. Then he would like to see a few Minnesota Viking games in Minneapolis.
3. Mrs. Shuck has many responsibilities as our Assistant Principal such as making the master schedule, the maintainance of all student records and work with teachers and the departments on development of new classes. She came to Warren in September, 1976 and she enjoys her job every year she has been at Warren. Her hobbies include reading, traveling, sewing, and photography. She loved teaching, being a Counselor, and being an Activities Director, but she especially likes her job at Warren. We have the best students and the best faculty members and they all add to her love of her job!

Favorite Teachers

1. Mr. Keller is one of the most outgoing teachers. This year is his 20th anniversary teaching here at Warren High. He graduated from high school in Colorado, started college there and finished at Cal. State University at Long Beach. He has a tri-major in History, Sociology, and Economics, with an English minor. He is the advisor to Key Club. In the past years he was advisor for the Ski Club, CSF, and Equestrians clubs. He has two dogs, Rommel and Sox. "These are my buddies, my family, my best friends, who needs more?"
2. Mrs. Lords is popular for her teaching of Shorthand I and II, Typing II and Vocational Typing, Law Enforcement Procedures, and Introduction to Law Enforcement. She also holds down the job as the advisor of Les Devouees. She choose Warren because she liked the courses she was offered and liked Warren over La Serna. She's been here since October, 1968.
3. Mr. Dunaway, a faculty member here at Warren, has the responsibilities of teaching English to the grade levels 9 through 12. And was an assistant Varsity Football coach. Mr. Dunaway has been teaching here since October, 1974. He enjoys the atmosphere and demeanor of all the students.

Practical Arts

Seniors

Our feelings . . .
of time rushing by.
So quickly — too quickly.
Some of our friends will be leaving to go out on their own.
Pondering thoughts, dreaming dreams of our future which is coming closer each day.

Our Senior year has come with the challenges that we have been faced with through our years at Warren.

As Freshmen, our first year was filled with nervousness and anxiety. As we sat with old friends and the new ones we made, we reminisced of the past, and wondered what our future held. Going to our first football and basketball game and the last year of Mr. Robinson as our principal and the arrival of our current Mr. Spruston. This was our beginning, and we were on our way.

Our Sophomore year was exciting with the events of getting our drivers license and the freedom that gave, plus being older we get more respect. Now, two down, two more to go, and we thought we would never get thru.

In our Junior year we started to think about our futures, but we still enjoyed the year, such as when we won the Mini Olympics, and of course we can't forget about our cafeteria and English department both destroyed by arson. Thoughts of going to Homecoming went through the mind of our fellow juniors, hoping that the girl would say "yes" or that they would be asked, since most juniors had their license by now. And the introduction of Lola LaPlume and her adventures in our own "The Justice" newspaper.

Being a Senior in '83 means: only "one more year", Friday night football games, worrying about college, getting Senior pictures, taking the SAT, staying out late, Homecoming Queen and Princesses, strong friendships, endless memories, anxious for Prom, anticipating graduation, ready to go and seek other worlds.

The future is not what all Seniors think about: going to dances, devising schemes, planning parties, watching TV, drive-in shows, getting cars and motorcycles, chasing boys or trying to pick up on girls and running wild: Mom still treats you like a child. Home by ten, asleep by eleven, up in the morning for school at seven.

Graduation comes at last; We reminisce about the past.

Our high school days have been the best—Always remember, never forget.

Patty Gilbert

Classroom Size Grows

On the first day of school this year, I noticed a big change in the size of the classrooms. Last year the average class was thirty or less. Now, it is well above thirty students per class. I'm sure the teachers don't like it because they must do more work. The students don't like it because they feel like numbers — it is just harder for the teachers to memorize their names. After a while, though, I'm sure we will adjust to it and we will feel more comfortable with bigger classes.

Scott Swygard

Larry Holden and Amber Rhines decide on what Senior picture of Todd Clark would be best for the El Oroso.

This School Is Great!

We have had more changes in this last year than other schools have had in a whole decade. Last year, for example, the cafeteria burned down which cost millions of dollars worth of damage. We had to adjust to a new lunch schedule. The quad is a little bit more crowded and the lines are longer. I think, however, we are cooperating just fine. We also lost many books which cost thousands of dollars in our English department. The teachers now have to make new adjustments to new books from which they are still teaching us something. Another change in our school is the bus policy. We now have to pay to ride the bus which is turning many people back to walking and riding their bikes which is good since it keeps us in shape. We now also have to pay to participate in any athletic sport. Anyone who is in a sport has to buy an activity card at $13.00 or they don't participate. Despite all the changes in this year, I think this school is just great.

District Saves Dollars At Seniors Expense

It would be very easy for us as students to blame this school for everything that's wrong this year. The cafeteria hasn't been rebuilt, it costs a bundle to play on an athletic team, and seniors can only go to school for five periods a day. True, our cafeteria will be rebuilt, but not improved. True, our athletes should support their school, but not have to pay to play. True, our district needs to gain funds by charging for some areas and save money by cutting others, but not at such a cost to seniors. Is a five period day good or bad? It's good if a student wants an extra hour to sleep or an hour early out of school to hit the beach, or if the district saves thousands of dollars, but it's bad if a student needs a sixth class to prepare for a future college curriculum. The bottom line to righting these wrongs is money. Warren High isn't the only school suffering from forced change. Rather, Warren is just one cell in the body of the California school system a body which is hungry for funding. If this system doesn't get the funding, the body and all of its cells will die.

Bears Are Unique

Warren is highly recommended by many people. I feel it is one of the most exciting schools I have attended in a long time. The communication and understanding between the students and the teachers has grown since the starting of this school and flourished ever since Warren consists of good students and well qualified teachers this is what makes this school unique from the other schools.

The various activities along with the educational opportunities are incredible. The students take full advantage of this and learn as much as they can.

I personally like Warren and enjoy coming to this school. I feel it is one of the best schools in Downey. I wish Warren would keep up it's pride and stature in the coming years and still remain the best school ever.

Crisis Penetrates Gates

Hard times at Warren High—the effects of the economic crisis ripe in the nation has finally penetrated the gates of Warren High, heralding sweeping changes for the school year of 1982-83 that shocked many students.

Aspiring athletes discovered that they were required to pay a participation fee to join the sport of their choice; bus riders found they must pay for school transportation services; and seniors upon registration learned they could only take five classes rather than the usual six.

Students are apt to feel resentful of these changes, especially since a considerable sum of money is involved, but they must understand the problems of administrators faced with an insufficient budget. With no increase in the appropriation of educational funds in sight, school administrators out of economic expedience were forced to modify existing policies. Only by reducing funds spent on extracurricular activities could the quality of education offered at Warren High be preserved.

Fortunately for many students, the changes have not adversely affected the academic standard at Warren. Students will invariably continue to complain about the new policies every time they purchase a bus ticket or pay the $35.00 fee to participate in interscholastic sports, but under the circumstances, Warren administrators did the best they could to remedy an unpleasant situation.

Problems Effect Everyone

This year we had a new beginning in Warren due to certain problems involving our school. I always thought our school had the best faculty along with its share of outstanding students. Although the faculty is helpful and dedicated to their job as ever, I have some doubts about some students in our school.

For instance, there was a fire last year which burned down the cafeteria. I'm sure it wasn't one of the teachers although someone tried to blame it on one of the teachers. The pyromaniac was never caught, but if he was one of Warren students, he had to share the inconvenience he had created along with others.

To add to last years difficulty came this years difficulty. The cut back on money spent on school. Seniors were to cut their class to five periods a day and people riding the school buses were asked to pay for the ride for the first time. This cut back meant less of everything and conserving the other materials we had. There had to be a change in many of our attitudes.

In conclusion, all the members associated with Warren High had to start a new beginning, a beginning with less difficulty and problems, and more dedication and responsibility of students and teachers. We should also center our ideals to learning and teaching alone, and do away with many personal feelings.

Five Period Day Stinks!

As I entered high school I was well aware that to get anywhere in life I had to attend college. So, I began my freshman year with this thought in mind—working hard in preparation for college and a bright future. My first three years went fairly smoothly. I got all the classes that I wanted and needed for a good high school record.

Yes, it was too good to last. I first realized this fact when I opened my registration packet for my final year. As I began flipping through the mumbo jumbo, I occasionally caught the first line of each page. The first three lines that caught my eye began in this manner: "Due to a lack of funds," or something of that sort, and went on to tell about fees for busses, sports, and an increased fee for lunches. But I wasn't going to let this ruin my senior year, just because the community can't put up a little money to support and educate its youth.

I wouldn't fuss over a minimal fee for a good education if I was getting one. However, when they wouldn't allow me to take a full six periods on top of the fee, I started to get upset. I couldn't believe it. In these times when a complete high school education is getting infinitely more important and the quality in most public schools is diminishing, they go and cut the number of credits necessary for graduation and don't allow those dedicated students to take a full schedule. It's ironic that all my life I've been taught the importance of a good education by counselors, teachers and administrators and now these same people go change the policy. I guess all of Mr. Rice's preaching about not "kicking back" your senior year was all in vain. Here I am ready to not kick back and being forced to. This present policy contradicts everything they've ever taught me and personally I think it stinks.

Day Goes By Quicker

As I entered my final year at Warren I've been faced with many new situations. First, being able to go to school only five periods a day is probably the best thing that has happened for seniors. The day goes by quicker and you can do anything you want after school. There's extra time to yourself.

In conclusion, my new beginning at Warren has been the best ever. Having privileges over the underclassmen makes one feel special and as a senior I do feel very special.

Is This Good?

The end of summer comes, and I anticipate the new year at Warren High. It's my senior year, so what could go wrong? I received my annual package in the mail that tells the new rules, insurance policies, dress codes, etc. This year, something else was in it. The cost of bus fare went up eighty-eight dollars. "Who should have to pay for a measly three miles to get to school?" I thought. Well, obviously I was going to. I lived too far away to walk and my bike is broken. So I paid for the first month.

Bus passes were not the only thing different. Seniors now only have to go five periods a day. Naturally they cut out physical education, my favorite class. The big decision came, should I cut first period or should I cut sixth? I decided on sixth. I wondered. "How do I get home, if the bus comes after sixth period and I get out at fifth?" Problem solved. I'm supposed to sit out in front of the school and wait for the bus. The first time it picked me up, I laughed. A great big bus used to haul a hundred students, only took four at the most. And that included Downey High School too!

Another beginning for Warren is not having a cafeteria, where many students got a "delicious" meal. I expected it to be partially repaired over the summer, but when the first day of school came, it was in the same mess as it was before. Students seem to be getting along just fine without the cafeteria, but I wonder what we're going to do when rainy season starts. I don't want to catch pneumonia just because the school is too lazy to fix the cafeteria. I know the school isn't really lazy, they can't fix it because of money problems.

I don't want to be misunderstood. I want things to change ... if they will do some good!

Give Back Cookies And Milk

I was sitting in the library looking at some old yearbooks, and I realized all the great things people back then got to do.

Sure they had a budget problem but nothing like we have now.

I could see, however, that slowly the school put prices on just about everything. My history "teacher" told me of a day when pencils and paper were given out. Milk and cookies were likewise free. People didn't appreciate these gifts. Soon the district could no longer afford the free pencils and paper for kindergarten.

It is funny, if you feed people slow enough, they'll swallow just about anything. People had to pay dues for clubs around campus. The shock of that wore off and so it was replaced by mandatory activity cards for athletes. The student council obviously received no outright money and this got them into the act. Then a fee for bus transportation. Then a fee for athletics. Then can the fee for any class beyond the three "R's." You remember, the fifty dollar shop cards. Nobody noticed the fact that classes were getting larger and larger while teachers were getting fewer and fewer.

Then the day came when students paid for books. Then they put parking meters in the parking lot. The toll gates at the gates of the school and eventually having to buy a daily ticket to school came next. Remember the time everybody pitched in to buy the teachers some chalk? Or, the day the whole school brought their lawnmowers to school and PE consisted of mowing the fields?

I can still remember the day the system collapsed. No yearbook needs to tell me that one. I remember it all too well. Public schools shut down and we all went to new classrooms. I've been told the computer at home teaches me as well as any human anyway, but I wonder.

Stabilized Changes Tilt Seniors

Looking back at my senior year, I see many changes that not only affected seniors, but underclassmen too! Alterations such as bus fares, athletic fees and a five period day are a few of many changes that are intended to stabilize the school's budget and still maintain a good quality education.

Riding a bus to school was a privilege set up by D.U.S.D., but because of present financial problems bus fares were issued. The fares are supposed to cover 1/3 of the cost and function of buses, but ironically more than 1/2 the students are on special or free rate service and the cost is not being met. Other students opt to walk or carpool before paying fares.

Another transformation which brought out many angry attitudes was the payment of the athletic fee. Students participating in sports are plagued with enough fees as it is, i.e. student activity cards, physical fees, and sports equipment. To add another thirty-five dollars onto the tab already charged seemed an insult. Luckily that is all changed, lucky for the athletes that is but not the district.

One last change that has been previously considered, but was finally approved is a five period day. Seniors have the opportunity to start school at first or second period and end at fifth or sixth period, omitting one period of physical education. A five period day does not of course hinder the good quality of education at Warren, but the lack of teachers does. Some classes are filled with as many as forty students making education harder to teach and learn.

Hopefully, all these changes will be for the better.

Overcast Morning Brings Shock

I still remember well that morning that I came to school and saw what was left of our cafeteria. I didn't use it that much but I was still mad that it burned down. It was an overcast morning and as I drove into the parking lot, I noticed that the teachers lounge was burned, but I had no idea that anything else was burned. When I saw the fire gutted building, I couldn't believe it. Everybody stood around it staring in disbelief. For Seniors it meant no more senior cafeteria and all the pictures of great Warren athletes and Homecoming Queens and senior class portraits. Later I couldn't believe it when I heard that one of the classrooms was burned. For a moment I thought that someone was trying to destroy our school. There hasn't been any fire since then, but I'm sure nobody will forget these fires while here at Warren.

A New Beginning

The Downey Unified School District, trying to make do with their limited state funds, has forced Warren High school to charge for services and events offered by the school. One of the costs imposed on students is the thirty-five dollar fee for transportation to and from extra-curricular activities. If a student is involved in an extra-curricular activity, he must pay for an additional twelve dollar activity card used for entrance into the after school athletic competitions.

I think the solution for having a "new beginning at Warren" lies within the state legislature. For instance, they didn't allow enough money to our school district and many other districts. But the legislature is elected by all the people. Therefore, the problem lies indirectly with either the populace of this state for not caring about education or the representatives who in some cases need to be replaced. If the state would turn over more money to the districts, the districts would not have to charge the students for services and therefore, bring about a "new beginning" anywhere.

Surprises Hit Seniors

The Seniors sure had a surprise this year. When we received our registration papers we were informed that due to the school cutbacks we would have a five period. Finally the seniors have priority over the other students. The only special privileges we've had in previous years were the Senior Circle and Senior Prom. Now we have a shorter day. Most Seniors have taken out their P.E. classes. But those in athletics have P.E. 6th period and exclude one of their electives. This is a great advantage for Seniors.

Students now have an extra hour to work at their jobs. The athlete's have an extra hour in the morning to sleep, which is much needed. There are a lot of crucial cutbacks this year, but this certain one is going to make my Senior year the best ever!

Conflagration Hits Warren

A very strange thing happened last February. The students noticed what had taken place as they neared the school. For some reason, the cafeteria was extremely quiet. This calmness was the result of the cafeteria being set on fire. Some crazy individual had mindlessly vandalized Warren High. Although the arsonist hasn't been found yet, his crime is still visible on the campus. My first feelings were of utter shock. I couldn't believe how many students were laughing at the blackened interior of the cafeteria. kids were even making cafeteria jokes. Many students took the cafeteria for granted, but now it was gone. Students were told to bring sack lunches to school for obvious reasons. The next week, Mrs. Jones' room was set on fire. Mr. Spruston was very upset about the weeks events, but he coped with it rather well. It was frustrating to come to school every day and have to look at the ugly shell of our cafeteria. Perhaps when the cafeteria is rebuilt, we will again realize what a convenience it is.

Fee Illegal

As we entered the sport of our choice we paid a fee of thirty-five dollars to play. If an athlete didn't pay by a certain date, he didn't play. Now all athlete's get their thirty-five dollars back. Because in another school district a similar fee was charged and the court ruled that this fee was illegal. So, that meant our school would be charging athlete's illegally, forcing the district to reimburse the athlete's. The fees didn't do the job anyway, but it hurts to think that in a few years from now we may not have any sports at all due to the budget cuts and lack of equipment.

ADVERTISEMENTS

Each year in order to help pay for the cost of the yearbook Warren High's yearbook staff sells ADS. Ads is the term used in which a student goes out to a business firm and discusses the possibilities of the manager buying space in the Warren High annual. Choices vary for the manager may buy a portion of the page or he may buy the whole page for the purpose of advertising his business and or products. If the manager agrees to buy an ad then a receipt is filled out and he has the option to either have a picture taken of his firm and or have copy appear in the annual. When a business firm buys an ad from the yearbook staff it not only lessens the cost of the yearbook for the student but also it ensures better quality of it.

Paramount Chevrolet, founded in 1939 by O E. Ferber, is not only one of Downey's oldest and best known business establishments, but also one of the largest Chevrolet agencies in California. A December 21, 1939 front-page article in the local newspaper the Downey Live Wire, announced Mr. Ferber's take over of Mc Ghee Chevrolet and the name-change to Paramount Chevrolet. The article went on to describe the new agency, "located in a large plant at Firestone and Paramount boulevards" as "one of the largest and most complete in Southern California."

The building mentioned in this newspaper article still stands and serves as the main showroom. 1982 marked the 43rd birthday of Paramount Chevrolet and the 50th birthday of the showroom building, which is one of the few Art Deco structures remaining in Downey.

The 1939 Live Wire ran Paramount Chevrolet's first advertisement just below an ad encouraging Downey's 12,000 residents to eat at Uncle Gabriel's Cafe (most recently Cagney's restaurant on Paramount Blvd.) Lunches at Uncle Gabriel's were advertised for 60¢ while a 'Dinner de Luxe' cost $1.25.

Although war rages in Europe in 1939, life went on as usual for most Downey residents who paid 15¢ to see movies at the local theater. New automobiles sold for around $700.00, salaries were typically $100.00 per month and new two bedroom homes were being offered near Lakewood and Firestone for $26.50 per month after a small down payment.

Today's automobiles sell for considerably more than they did when Paramount Chevrolet was conceived, but 1969-61 Warren High graduates James and Richard Ferber, following the lead set by their father, continue to serve the community of offering quality automobiles at competitive prices.

Pace Studio Firestone Blvd. • :

Pace Studios was established in 1951 by Charles Pace, who contributed much to Warren High until his death in 1981. His son-in-law, Jim Gunn, then took over the business and has continued to help this school preserve its memories with pictures. Aside from taking the pictures at Prom, Homecoming, Sadies, and all of the major dances Pace donates most of the film and prints all of the pictures that appear in the yearbook. Pace Studios has become a tradition at Warren, and an important part of every yearbookies life. The extreme effort they've put forth through the years had earned them the respect they deserve from everyone at Warren.

... and so another year at Warren is over. For many the ending of the year will mean going on to bigger and better things, others will return to these very halls next year to begin another chapter in their life at Warren.

But if one is coming back or not is not important. What matters is the memories, and, although it sounds corny, its true. When reminiscing about high school days, no one will remember that killer test that they were so worried about.

Things that come to mind will be thoughts of friendships that were made and broken, girlfriends and boyfriends that meant so much, a really great dance, winning an important football game or trying out for cheer.

All of these things help to shape our lives. The El Oroso staff tryed to capture them in this yearbook, the memories and events that will still produce a smile in years to come.

So, although almost everything was at bare minimum this year, there was a maximum of memories, and many of them have been preserved in these pages to look back on long after the memories in the mind have faded away.
